THE MANAGER

EDWARD MICHAEL (EDDIE) KASKO. Born: June 27, 1931, Linden, N. J. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Richmond, Va. Married Catherine Bache, February 15, 1958. Children: Michael, 10 years and James, six years. Acquired by Red Sox, April 3, 1966 for Felix Mantilla from Houston.

He becomes the 29th Red Sox manager after guiding Louisville to a second place finish in the International League in 1969. In his two previous years as a triple A manager, Louisville finished sixth in 1968 and Toronto finished sixth in 1967.

His promotion marks the second time he has succeeded Dick Williams, taking the Toronto reins after Williams came to Boston in 1967.

Eddie first joined the Red Sox organization as a utility infielder in 1966, after nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds and Houston Astros.

His best years were with the Reds, when he was named their Most Valuable Player in 1960, batting .292, and helped them to the 1961 National League pennant. He became the Astros' first captain in 1965.

He first broke into organized baseball in 1949 with Baltimore of the International League, after graduating from Linden High School in 1948. After six minor league seasons, interrupted by two years as a combat engineer in the U. S. Army, he came up to the majors with St. Louis in 1957.

Several of the younger Red Sox players on the present roster came under his direction during the past three years, where they admired his mild, but firm, approach to managing. He also gained respect from many other members of the Red Sox when he was their teammate in 1966.

THE COACHES

EDWARD J. (EDDIE) POPOWSKI. Born: Aug. 20, 1913 at Sayreville, N. J. Ht.: 5'4"; Wt.: 155 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Married, Mary Joan Howley, Dec. 26, 1941. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Home: Sayreville, N. J. Children: Carol 25, Terry 23, Ricky 16, Randy 14, Sherry 13.

He returns for his fourth season as the Red Sox third base coach and the only holdover from Dick Williams' staff. "Pop" has spent over 30 years in the Red Sox organization as player, scout, manager and coach. In 20 years of minor league managing, his clubs finished out of the first division only six times and he directed four pennant winners, the latest in 1965 when he won the Eastern League title at Pittsfield. For several years prior to becoming a coach he managed the Red Sox entry in the Florida Instructional League.

DONALD EUGENE (DON) LENHARDT. Born: Oct. 4, 1922 at Aiton, Ill. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 190. Green eyes, Blond hair. Home: St. Louis, Mo. Married Isabel Fracchia, Oct. 27, 1951. Children: Patricia Ann, 17 years.

Returns to Boston, where he last played in 1954, as first base coach and batting instructor, and after serving as a Red Sox scout in Missouri, Illinois and Iowa since 1957. In the Navy during World War II, Don later played five years in the major leagues as an outfielder, first baseman and third baseman with the St. Louis Browns, White Sox, Tigers and Boston. He finished his active playing career in the Red Sox system with San Francisco in 1956.

In addition to his scouting duties he has served as batting instructor in all Red Sox minor league camps in Ocala since 1961 and also has been a coach for several years with the fall instructional club. Lifetime in the majors, he had a .271 batting average with 61 home runs and 239 runs batted in.

CHARLES THOMAS (BROADWAY CHARLIE) WAGNER. Born: Dec. 3, 1912, Reading, Pa. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 175 lbs. Blue eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Reading, Pa. Married Elynor Becker, Oct. 10, 1942. Children: Craig, 19 years.

Another long-time organization man who returns to a major league uniform for the first time since he pitched for the Red Sox pennant winning team of 1946. Since that time, he was assistant farm director from 1947 through 1960, a special assignment scout for the past 10 years, and ever since 1947, Charlie has served as a spring training pitching coach and instructor with Red Sox triple A teams.

He broke into the Red Sox system with Charlotte of the Piedmont League, and finally came to the Red Sox to stay in 1941. After two good years when he won 26 and lost 19, he enlisted in the Navy for three years and returned for brief relief action with the 1946 pennant winners, before moving into the front office.

DOUGLAS JOSEPH (DOUG) CAMILLI. Born: Sept. 22, 1936, Philadelphia, Pa. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Adelphi, Md. Married Marilyn Mumm, Oct. 19, 1963. Children: Kevin, five years, Jeffrey, three years, and Michael, two years.

He is one of four brothers to play professional baseball, following the lead of their father, Dolph, a first baseman who starred for the Phillies and Dodgers and finished his major league career with the Red Sox in 1945.

The past two years Doug has been bullpen coach for Washington, where he ended an eight-year playing career in 1967, although the Senators did activate him briefly late in 1969. He signed with the Dodgers organization out of Stanford in 1957 and was with the parent club for five years — catching a Sandy Koufax' no-hitter in Philadelphia on June 4, 1964 — before coming to the Senators in 1965.

PLAYER RECORDS

ALVARADO, Luis

INFIELDER

Born: January 15, 1949, Lajas, Puerto Rico; Ht.: 5'8"; Wt.: 170 lbs.; Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Lajas, P.R. Acquired: Signed by Scout Pedro Vasquez, October 20, 1966.

As the Most Valuable Player and "Rookie of the Year" in the International League, he'll get every chance to play his way into the regular Red Sox lineup in spring training, possibly at third base. As leadoff batter for Louisville he led the league in at bats, runs, hits and doubles and had a very impressive 62 RBI's.

Eddie Kasko, therefore, has the top major and minor league shortstops of 1969 in Petrocelli and Alvarado. At least one of them will get work at third in the spring.

There never has been a question about Luis' fielding ability, which has been major league since he first broke in with Waterloo, but it has been his continued improvement in batting which has been most impressive. Starred this winter for San Juan in the Puerto Rico winter league. He is single.

ANDREWS, Michael Jay (Mike)

INFIELDER

Born: July 9, 1943, Los Angeles, Calif. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 190 lbs.; Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Signed by scout Joe Stephenson from junior college, Dec. 1, 1961.

His true value was best indicated when the club dropped from a scant three games behind the Orioles to eleven games back in the five-week period from May 30 till July 8, when Mike was sidelined with a painful hand injury. Despite the lost time, he improved in every respect in his third major league season as a hitter and a fielder and is now definitely established as one of the all-time great Red Sox second basemen.

Originally a shortstop, he switched to second in 1966 with Toronto. In high school he was a standout in football, basketball and baseball and later was an All-American Junior College end at El Camino College before signing. Mike is married and has three children.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Red Sox broke their club record for home runs in one season last year with 197, tops in the majors. Rico Petrocelli and Carl Yastrzemski each had 40 homers making the Red Sox only the second non-Yankee club in league history to have two players hit that many in one season.

BRETT, Kenneth A. (Ken)

PITCHER

Born: Sept. 18, 1948, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: El Segundo, Calif. Acquired: Signed by scout Joe Stephenson, June 29, 1966.

The Red Sox number one draft selection in 1966 now appears ready for full-time major league duty as a starter. With less than two years professional experience he finished the 1967 season with the Red Sox and made an impressive World Series appearance at the age of 19. His progress was delayed because of arm trouble and military commitments the last two years.

Possessor of an outstanding fast ball, he worked hard in the Florida Instructional League to improve his curve and control. He pitched on championship Little League, Babe Ruth League (including the 1964 national champions from El Segundo) and high school championship teams before signing. He is single.

CONIGLIARO, Anthony R. (Tony)

OUTFIELDER

Born: Jan. 7, 1945, Revere, Mass. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Brookline, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Neil Mahoney and Milt Bolling, Sept. 10, 1962.

Without question he fashioned the "Comeback Story" of the year in major league baseball in 1969, when he returned to fulltime action after a miraculous recovery from the eye injury suffered on August 18, 1967. On that fateful night he was struck in the left eye by a Jack Hamilton pitch, and despite a gallant effort in spring training of 1968, it appeared that his baseball career had come to an end because of damaged eyesight. However, after sitting out the 1968 season, he asked for a pitching tryout in the instructional league but soon demonstrated that he could hit again. Eye specialists regard his recovery a near miracle.

His 1969 performance with 20 home runs and 82 RBI's in 141 games proves that Tony is back on the track to the stardom predicted for him before the injury. And it earned him the 1969 "Hutch" award, given annually to the player "who best exemplifies the fighting spirit and burning desire of the late Fred Hutchinson." Previous winners were Pete Rose, Carl Yastrzemski, Sandy Koufax and Mickey Mantle.

The Red Sox had to outbid 14 other teams for his services after he had starred in all sports at St. Mary's High School in Lynn. He is single and has had some success as a rock and roll singer.

OUTFIELDER

Born: Aug. 15, 1947, Revere, Mass. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Brookline, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Milt Bolling after being selected as the Red Sox number one choice in the first free agent draft, June, 1965.

Tony's younger brother started the 1969 season with the Red Sox and although he was hitting well, it was decided he would profit more by playing every day. So he went to Louisville, where he had a strong season under Eddie Kasko, and was rated the best centerfielder in the International League. Should be ready for the majors this year.

Along with baseball, he was also an outstanding football player at Swampscott High and turned down several college football offers to sign as the Red Sox number one draft selection in 1965. He is single.

CULP, Raymond Leonard, Jr. (Ray)PITCHER

Born: August 6, 1941, Elgin, Tex. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 197 lbs.; Blue eyes, Brown hair; Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Austin, Tex. Acquired: November 30, 1967, from the Chicago Cubs for cash and minor league outfielder Bill Schlesinger.

The Red Sox leading pitcher for the second year in a row, even though he missed the last month of the season because of elbow trouble. It was decided at that time to give him a complete rest until spring training. In 1964, the same elbow had caused him trouble after a great rookie year with the Phillies.

Ray's back-to-back fine seasons in 1968 and 1969 make his acquisition stand as one of the Red Sox best deals ever. One of the few players in the game who has been selected for the All Star game in both leagues . . . as a rookie for the National League in 1963, and last season on the American League squad.

Married, with two children, he is an off-season real estate man in his native Austin, Texas, where he starred in football, track and baseball at Austin High before signing with the Phillies.

Born: March 9, 1948, Newton, Mass. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 175 lbs.; Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Smithtown, L.I., N.Y. Acquired: Signed by Scout 'Bots' Nekola, after Red Sox chose him number one in the free agent draft of June, 1968.

A standout at Smithtown Central High on Long Island, he was Cleveland's number one draft selection in 1966, but elected to go to Clemson University, where he was undefeated as a freshman and had three no-hitters. Starred briefly in the Cape Cod Summer League in 1967 before being selected for the U. S. Pan American team, where he became the first U. S. pitcher to defeat Cuba and the United States won the gold medal in baseball for the first time.

The Red Sox made him their first choice in the secondary phase in the June draft and he signed after his sophomore year at Clemson. Although protected on the major league roster, he may miss spring training in Winter Haven while he works for his degree, scheduled for May, 1970. Recently married.

He can play both the outfield and first base.

At Brookland-Cayce High of West Columbia, South Carolina, he was high school All-America selection in football and All-State in basketball, starred in baseball and ran on the track team. FI SK, Carlton E. (Pudgy) Born: Dec. 26, 1947, Bellows Falls, Vt. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Charlestown, N. H. Acquired: Signed in February, 1967, after being Red Sox number one selection in winter draft.

CATCHER

Made a fine impression in his first trip to Winter Haven last spring and became Pittsfield's number one catcher despite only one previous year of professional experience. He has all the tools to become a fine major league catcher: size, outstanding arm, showed great improvement as a receiver, with power at the plate. In addition, he is a take charge catcher with hustle and aggressiveness.

Carlton was MVP in baseball, basketball and soccer at Charlestown, N. H. High and starred in basketball at the Univ. of New Hampshire before signing. Known as "Pudgy" since childhood, he was also an outstanding American Legion player for Bellows Falls, Vt. His older brother, Calvin, is a catcher in the Baltimore farm system. He is single and was a leading hitter last fall in the instructional league.

GARMAN, Michael D. (Mike)

PITCHER

Born: Sept. 16, 1949, Caldwell, Idaho. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 198 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Wilder, Idaho. Acquired: Signed by Scout Earl Johnson after being the Red Sox number one draft selection in June, 1967.

He could duplicate Mike Nagy's feat of 1969 and jump all the way to the majors from the Carolina League. He made a fine major league debut when he beat the Yankees in late September, after tying for the league lead in strikeouts in Winston-Salem. His manager, Matt Sczesny, who has directed him the past two years, rates him as the "most improved player on the club" who matured greatly in 1969.

Possessor of an outstanding fast ball and a good curve, he was not only MVP in baseball at Caldwell High, but was also an All-State selection in football and basketball. Mike is married and has a son.

GIBSON, John Russell (Russ)

CATCHER

Born: May 6, 1939, Fall River, Mass. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Scouted by Joe Dugan and signed by Neil Mahoney in June, 1957, after graduating from Durfee High School in Fall River.

He was the Red Sox number one catcher for most of the 1969 season, but faces even stiffer challenges in 1970 from an improved Jerry Moses, newcomers Don Pavletich and Bob Montgomery and holdover Tom Satriano. However, "Gibby," one of the most popular men on the team, has survived many previous challenges in his 13 years in the Red Sox system.

He was a great all-around athlete at Durfee High in Fall River before signing with the Red Sox and has a large following in Southeastern Massachusetts. Married, with one son.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Red Sox extended their American League record for consecutive years hitting 100 or more home runs to 24.

JANESKI, Gerald Joseph (Jerry)PITCHER

Born: April 18, 1946, Pasadena, Calif. Ht.: 6'4"; Wt.: 200 lbs.; Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: San Gabriel, Calif. Acquired: Signed by Scout Joe Stephenson, June, 1964.

Another pitcher who will get every chance in spring training to pitch his way into the starting rotation, after a fine season at Louisville. He tied for the league lead with 15 victories and led the International League with 14 complete games. He was outstanding in the early 1969 season but had some troubles later. Observers believe he must have good control of his fast ball and curve to be effective in the majors.

Jerry was an All-League selection at LaSalle High of Pasadena and attends California State of Los Angeles in the off season. He is single.

He was an early-season surprise for the Red Sox in 1969, with some fine efforts as a starter and reliever thanks to a very effective sinking fast ball. Military commitments and arm trouble hampered his progress by mid-season, and he finally was put on the disabled list for a complete rest in mid-August. He returned to pitch briefly late in the season, and it is hoped his arm will be sound for spring training. Probably has best future as a reliever.

An All-State selection at Hope High, he also pitched in the Cape Cod Summer League before signing. He is married.

Special invitee to the Red Sox training camp. He was experimenting with a knuckler in the late weeks of the 1969 season, and if he perfects it he could have a shot at a bullpen spot.

In his long major league career, Ron has pitched for the Pirates, Cardinals, Angels, Tigers, Senators, Twins and the Giants. He became a full-time reliever with Detroit in 1962 and had outstanding seasons with Washington in 1964, with Minnesota in 1967 and Pittsburgh in 1968. Married and has four daughters.

Although he appeared in 101 games for the Red Sox in 1969, he never did get enough continuous action to get untracked as a major league hitter. He played with San Juan in Puerto Rico this past winter. Faces another difficult time trying to break in to the Red Sox outfield.

Joe has shown he has power, a good throwing arm and surprising speed, despite flat feet and a bad ankle.

He captained the baseball, basketball and soccer teams at Henry Abbott Tech in Danbury and played basketball at New Haven College before signing. He is single.

LANDIS, William H. (Bill)PITCHER

Born: October 8, 1942, Hanford, Calif. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt. 190 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Drafted from Vancouver (Athletics) of Pacific Coast League, Nov. 29, 1966.

With three quick wins in relief in the first week of the 1969 season, it appeared that this hard-throwing southpaw was about to realize his potential. However, even though he appeared in more games and worked more innings than in his previous major league seasons, he was unable to put it all together. He pitched in the Puerto Rican winter league this year and will be battling in the spring to protect his spot as the left-handed long reliever in the bullpen.

Bill earned letters in baseball, tennis, football and wrestling at Hanford (Calif.) High and attended Coalinga Junior College before signing with the Athletics. He is married and has a son.

LEE, William Francis (Bill)PITCHER

Born: December 28, 1946, Burbank, Calif. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 205 lbs.; Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Jackson, Mississippi. Acquired: Signed by Scout Joe Stephenson, after being selected in free agent draft, June, 1968.

He was rushed up from Pittsfield last June to fill a pitching gap for the Red Sox and immediately impressed with his poise and an effective screwball. Not an overpowering pitcher and needs control to be a winner, but showed enough in his 20 appearances to warrant a good tryout this spring.

Bill was a standout on the University of Southern California NCAA championship team of 1968 and his two wins in consecutive days allowed the Trojans to go on to the title. Through high school he had also been a first baseman but concentrated on pitching once he reached Southern California. Married and now attends graduate school in Mississippi in the off-season.

Rico Petrocelli set one American League record, tied another and finished second in slugging percentage, the highest finish by a shortstop in league history. Rico became just the second shortstop in major league history to hit 40 homers in a season (the Cubs' Ernie Banks was the first). This broke Vern Stephens' club and league mark of 39, set in 1949. His 14 errors at shortstop tied Phil Rizzuto's league mark for fewest in a season for shortstops playing in at least 150 games.

Born: July 27, 1936, Wichita, Kansas. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 202 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Kingman, Kansas. Acquired: From Philadelphia Phillies for Bill Schlesinger and cash, May 4, 1969.

Special invitee to the Red Sox training camp. He saw very limited action as a pinch hitter with the Red Sox last season. With Washington he was always a very dangerous Fenway Park hitter.

Don was a fine all-round athlete at Wichita University before signing with the Yankees on his graduation in 1958. He will have a stiff battle to retain a backup spot. Married and has a son and daughter.

LONBORG, James R. (Jim)PITCHER

Born: April 16, 1943, Santa Maria, Calif. Ht.: 6'5"; Wt.: 210 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Boston, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Danny Doyle, Aug. 14, 1963.

For the third season in a row, Red Sox pennant hopes will be closely tied up with his battle to regain his 1967 effectiveness when he was the runaway Cy Young award winner in the American League and followed with two great pitching performances in the World Series.

The much-publicized skiing accident he suffered in December, 1967, practically wiped out his 1968 season. Last year Jim ran off six straight wins by June 8 and seemed back on the track. However, a foul ball off his own bat broke a toe and sidelined him from late June until mid-July. He could manage only one more win in relief the rest of the season.

He was signed from the Basin League after his junior year at Stanford. Jim received his degree in biology in 1966. Single.

Born: July 22, 1944, Dubois, Pa. Ht.: 6'1". Wt.: 198 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Drafted, November, 1964, from Baltimore Orioles.

He has definitely established himself as one of the top lefthanded relievers in baseball, with 15 victories, only six losses, and a sparkling 27 saves in two-and-a-half years with the Red Sox. Last year's 17 saves ranked him third in the American League.

Sparky played only football and basketball at Reynoldsville (Pa.) High because his school had no baseball team. Baltimore signed him after he struck out 31 men in a 17-inning sandlot game in 1963, and was drafted by the Red Sox in 1964. Married, with one son, he has worked as a good will representative for the club the past two winters.

MATCHICK, John Thomas (Tom)

INFIELDER

Born: September 7, 1943, Hazleton, Pa. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 175 lbs. Blue eyes, Red hair. Bats: Left. Throws: Right. Home: Freeland, Pa. Acquired: From Detroit for Dalton Jones, December 13, 1969.

Originally signed by the Cardinals on graduation from high school in 1961, he was drafted by the Tigers in 1962. He finally came up to the Tigers to stay in late 1967 after being selected on the International League All-Star team. A hustler and tough competitor, he played every position in the infield during the past two years with Detroit.

Tom played football and basketball at Hazletownship High School, which had no baseball team. He was scouted and signed for his performance in American Legion baseball.

His Tiger teammates nicknamed him "Pizza" because of his bright red hair. An off-season clothing salesman, he is married and has a son.

McGLOTHEN, Lynn Evertt (Mac)

PITCHER

Born: March 27, 1950, Monroe, La. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats: Left. Throws: Right. Home: Simsboro, La. Acquired: Signed by Scout Ed Scott after free agent draft of June, 1968.

The youngest player on the Red Sox roster will undoubtedly need more minor league experience, but his rapid improvement in 1969 warranted his promotion to the major league roster. He performed well in the Florida Instructional League, before being sidelined by illness.

He was a high draft selection in 1968 after starring at Grambling High where he also lettered each year in football, basketball and tennis. Lynn is married and has one child.

PITCHER

Born: Jan. 29, 1945, Boston, Mass. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 199 lbs. Hazel eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: East Weymouth, Mass. Acquired: Signed by farm director Ed Kenney after free agent draft of 1966. Scouted by Don Lenhardt.

One of eight New England natives on the roster, he was a leading pitcher with Pittsfield before an injured shoulder put him out of action. He appeared to be over his arm trouble in the Instructional League and should be ready for his second bid to make the parent club.

Dick has the tools to be a major league winner: good fast ball, good curve and a smooth delivery. A baseball and basketball star at Thayer Academy near Boston, he signed after his junior year at Parsons College, where he earned his degree the following year. He is single.

Born: April 16, 1944, Nashville, Tenn. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Nashville, Tenn. Acquired: Signed by Scout George Digby, June, 1962.

Ranked by Eddie Kasko as "the most improved player" on the Louisville club, Bob gets his first shot at the major leagues after eight years of minor league training. He was converted to catching after signing with the Red Sox. All his prior baseball experience had been as a pitcher, outfielder and first baseman, and he was an All-City choice in baseball, football and basketball at Central High in Nashville.

Always regarded as a better-than-average line drive hitter, his great improvement as a receiver made him the league's All-Star catcher and earned him the promotion after the 1969 season. Single, he is an accomplished pilot and college and high school basketball official.

He was selected the All-Star southpaw in the Florida State League last year, and like teammate McGlothen, needs only more minor league seasoning to improve his control to become a major leaguer.

Scouts and managers like his good moving fast ball and quick breaking curve, and he followed a good season in Florida with impressive work in the Puerto Rican winter league with Arecibo. Tall and wiry, baseball was his only sport at Rafael Landron High. "Julito" is single.

He and Tom Satriano split most of the catching the final month of the 1969 season, and he demonstrated last year that he could hit major league pitching. Continued improvement as a receiver would make him the number one catching candidate for 1970.

Jerry already has six years of pro ball, though only 23. He turned down many college football offers as an All-State football choice at Yazoo High to sign. He is a graduate of Mickey Owens baseball school, and his late father, Sammy, was a scout for the California Angels. He is married.

Definitely a fine future prospect who has an outside chance to stay in 1970, especially if he can continue to improve. Last year, with limited professional experience, he became the regular first baseman under Eddie Kasko at Louisville.

A major league fielder, he has also shown steady improvement as a hitter. He had an impressive baseball background before signing . . . as MVP and batting champion at Lakewood High in San Diego. MVP in the 1965 Connie Mack World Series, All Conference and MVP at San Diego Mesa Junior College in 1967. He is married.

NAGY, Michael (Mike)PITCHER

Born: March 25, 1948, New York City, N. Y. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Bronx, N. Y. Acquired: Signed by Scout "Bots" Nekola after free agent draft of June, 1966.

The most pleasant surprise of the 1969 season for the Red Sox — when he jumped from the Carolina League with only 39 games professional experience — and fashioned a 12-2 record, best winning percentage in baseball and was runner-up for "Rookie of the Year" honors.

Mike was a lucky charm in another way, because the Red Sox won 22 of the 28 games he started.

Off season military duty may delay his arrival in spring training, but he will be a definite starter in 1970. Mike has a good fast ball and an excellent curve and is an outstanding competitor on the mound. He played all sports at St. Helena High in New York before signing. Single.

Although Ben was primarily a first baseman before signing, he has played only the outfield in the Red Sox system. However, veteran observers rate him with a good future chance in either capacity.

A native of Panama, he was a high draft pick after starring in baseball and soccer at Theodore Roosevelt High in New York. He saw very limited action after signing in 1968 but had a solid season at Greenville last year. Single and an off-season student at Bronx Community College.

PAVLETICH, Donald Stephen (Don)CATCHER

Born: July 13, 1938, Milwaukee, Wis. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 211 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: West Allis, Wisconsin. Acquired: From Chicago White Sox with Gary Peters for Syd O'Brien, Billy Farmer and cash, December 13, 1969.

He spent all of his professional career prior to 1969 with the Cincinnati Reds organization before being traded to the White Sox with Don Secrist for Jack Fisher. Last season, he alternated between catching and first base for Chicago, but lost five weeks when he suffered a broken bone in his hand making a tag play at first.

Don jumps right into the wide open scramble for the Red Sox starting catching job and should see considerable action against southpaws. Against lefties last year, he batted .320 with 26 RBI's. In 1961, he was selected on the American Association All-Star team when he hit .295 in 142 games with Indianapolis. Married and has three children.

In the last three years the Red Sox have drawn more than 5.5 million people at home. This is the top attendance in the league and figures to 73.6 per cent of Fenway Park's capacity.

PETERS, Gary Charles (Gary)PITCHER

Born: April 21, 1937, Grove City, Pa. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 197 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Sarasota, Fla. Acquired: From Chicago White Sox with Don Pavletich for Syd O'Brien, Billy Farmer and cash, December 13, 1969.

The prized new addition to the Red Sox pitching staff, Gary comes to Boston after a great career with the White Sox. Despite losing seasons the past two years, the Red Sox are counting on him to move right into the starting rotation. Arm trouble contributed to his losing 4-13 record of 1968, but he worked 219 innings last season and won 10 games for the weak hitting White Sox.

He was the American League rookie of the year in 1963, a member of the league's All-Star teams in 1964 and 1967. His 11-game winning streak in 1963 tied a White Sox record. Led league in ERA in '63 and '66, second in '67. He has a .212 lifetime batting average, having been strictly a first baseman before turning professional.

Gary was the White Sox player representative. At Mercer High in Pennsylvania he was an All-State basketball player and attended Grove City College after signing. Married and has two daughters.

PETROCELLI, Americo P. (Rico)SHORTSTOP

Born: June 27, 1943, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes and hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Lynnfield, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Bots Nekola, July 2, 1961.

Easily the Red Sox MVP of 1969 with his best season ever in baseball. Rico broke Vern Stephens' 20-year-old American League record for home runs by a shortstop when he hit No. 40 in Washington September 29. He was second only to Reggie Jackson for the league's top slugging percentage, the highest finish ever for an American League shortstop.

It was also the first major league season in which Rico avoided injuries and arm problems. He also credits the long hours playing the drums the previous winter with strengthening his wrists for the additional power he displayed in 1969.

Rico had a great year in the field, too. He threatened the record for consecutive games without an error when he went 45 games into the season before a miscue, and he tied Phil Rizzuto's record, set in 1950, with only 14 errors at short all season. Rico had one error at third base in the final game of the year.

Rico was an All-Scholastic in both basketball and baseball at Sheepshead Bay (N.Y.) High. Married, with four children.

PHILLIPS, Norman Edwin, Jr. (Ed)PITCHER

Born: September 20, 1944, Ardmore, Oklahoma. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Portland, Maine. Acquired: Signed by scout Bob Murray after free agent draft of June, 1966.

His determination and the courage he demonstrated as a reliever under Eddie Kasko last year in Louisville earned promotion to the major league roster. A sidearm pitcher, with a good curve, he has been effective against righthanded hitters, but lefthanded batters have given him trouble in his four years in the Red Sox system since he graduated from Colby College. He had a perfect game for Winston-Salem over Rocky Mount on July 17, 1968.

Ed has played on many championship teams in his career . . . pitching for state championship teams in Maine in the Little League, Pony League, American Legion, high school and college. His 1966 Colby College team went to the College World Series in Omaha as the District One champions.

Single, he worked this past winter in the Red Sox ticket office.

ROMO, Vicente (Huevo)PITCHER

Born: May 21, 1943, Santa Rosalia, Mexico. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Sonora, Mexico. Acquired: With Sonny Siebert and Joe Azcue from Cleveland for Ken Harrelson, Dick Ellsworth and Juan Pizarro, April 19, 1969.

When he came over from Cleveland last April, he was strictly a reliever, but by season's end he had a 5-2 record as a starter, having changed places with Sonny Siebert. He could do either job in 1970, depending on what other starting candidates do in spring training.

Vicente is one of the few successful Mexican League graduates in the majors. As his record indicates he was a steady winner below the border as a starter but twice found the going difficult with Portland in the Cleveland organization. The Dodgers drafted him from Cleveland in November, 1967, but he pitched in only one game for Los Angeles before being returned to Portland. There he was converted to a relief pitcher and later became the "stopper" in the Cleveland bullpen with six saves and five wins after being recalled in June. With the Red Sox last year he had 11 saves.

An off-season automobile mechanic in his native Mexico, he is married and has a daughter and son.

PITCHER

Born: Aug. 15, 1940, Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: San Juan, Puerto Rico. Acquired: Contract purchased from Vancouver club of Kansas City farm system, Sept. 20, 1965.

Anything the Red Sox get from Sandy in 1970 will be regarded as a bonus after the elbow operation he underwent last season. Although he did return to work in 10 games late in the year, he was not effective.

One of the best-liked men on the Red Sox squad, he was on his way to a second straight great season in 1968, with nine wins up to June 27, when his elbow started to bother him. A complete rest from that point until spring training failed to help his arm and then the operation was scheduled. An appendicitis attack in 1963 and a badly sprained ankle in 1964 hampered his progress in the Kansas City system.

Sandy starred in baseball and basketball at Juana Diaz High and attended Santa Maria University before signing. Married, with one son.

SCHOFIELD, John Richard (Ducky)INFIELDER

Born: Jan. 7, 1935, Springfield, Ill. Ht.: 5'8"; Wt.: 170 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Switch; Throws: Right. Home: Springfield, Ill. Acquired: Obtained from St. Louis Cardinals for pitcher Gary Waslewski, Dec. 3, 1968.

The oldest player on the Red Sox 1970 roster, Dick did an outstanding job as a pinch hitter and utility player in 1969. He led the club in pinch hits, with 11 for 33 and nine RBI's, played second, third, shortstop and the outfield. In one stretch during May and June, when Mike Andrews was sidelined, he hit well over .300 as Mike's replacement.

As the first Cardinal bonus player, he broke right into the majors from high school in 1953, and has spent only a season-and-a-half in the minor leagues. He has been with six major league clubs and was on pennant winning teams with the Pirates in 1960 and the Cardinals in 1968.

One of the flashiest dressers in the game, Dick starred in basketball and baseball at Springfield (Ill.) High. Married and has three children.

SCOTT, George C., Jr. (Boomer)INFIELDER

Born: March 23, 1944, Greenville, Miss. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 215 lbs. Black eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Norwood, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Ed Scott, with an assist from Milt Bolling, May, 1964.

After winning two Gold Gloves in a row in 1967 and 1968, George spent most of 1969 playing at third base until late in the season. He fashioned one of the notable comebacks of the year, jumping his batting average 82 points, with corresponding increases in home runs and RBI's over a poor 1968 campaign. He again was one of the leading hitters in the winter league in Puerto Rico and additional improvement is expected in 1970.

It's likely he'll be permanently stationed at first base once again, where he is generally regarded as the best in baseball. Literally, George lives to play baseball, although it's likely, with his tremendous strength and coordination, he could have starred in either professional football or basketball. He excelled in all sports at Coleman High of Greenville.

As the fourth leading hitter in the league, he was a prime factor in the Red Sox pennant drive of 1967. Back in 1965, his last minor league year, he led the Eastern League in many batting categories with the champion Pittsfield Red Sox and was unanimous MVP. Married, with one son.

SIEBERT, Wilfred Charles (Sonny)

PITCHER

Born: January 14, 1937, St. Mary's, Mo. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: St. Louis, Mo. Acquired: With Vicente Romo and Joe Azcue from Cleveland for Ken Harrelson, Dick Ellsworth and Juan Pizarro, April 19, 1969.

He had an unusual record for the Red Sox after coming from Cleveland. In his first 25 games for Boston, 21 as a starter, he fashioned a 9-9 record, with only two complete games, when he went to the bullpen in early August. In his last 18 appearances, only one as a starter, he won five games, lost just one and saved five more.

At the season's end, he was operated on to remove calcium deposits in his elbow, which had caused him pain in the late innings as a starter, and it's expected that he will be able to return to the starting rotation in 1970.

Sonny first signed with Cleveland as a first baseman-outfielder, after batting .400 in the College World Series for the University of Missouri and being selected third team All-American first baseman. Through high school and Legion baseball, he had been a shortstop. He became a full-time pitcher in 1960 and came to the majors in 1964.

His biggest year in the majors was 1966, when he fired a no-hitter against Washington, made the All-Star team and had his second 16-8 season in succession. Married, with three children, he is an off-season graduate student and a fine bowler and golfer.

SMITH, Carl Reginald (Reggie)

OUTFIELDER

Born: April 2, 1945, Shreveport, La. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 189 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats: Switch; Throws: Right. Home: Norwood, Mass. Acquired: Drafted from Minnesota Twins farm system Dec. 2, 1963.

With his third progressively-better season, Reggie seems to have arrived at the star status which all observers had predicted for him. On the 1969 American League All-Star team as a center fielder, he challenged for the batting title all season (he hit .410 in June) and finished second, with career highs in home runs and RBI's. He reacted excellently to his new role as the Red Sox cleanup hitter and at 24 years of age has a still brighter future ahead.

He excelled in both baseball and football at Centennial High in Los Angeles, and played Little League ball with Don Wilson of Houston and Davey Nelson of Washington. Reggie is a student of karate and an expert developer of quarterhorses, with several prize horses of his own. Married, with one son.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mike Nagy's 12-2 record in his rookie season was the highest winning percentage (.857) in the major leagues in 1969 and not far off the club all-time mark of .872 by Joe Wood (34-5) in 1912.

STANGE, Albert Lee (Lee)

PITCHER

Born: October 27, 1936, Chicago, Ill. Ht.: 5'9"; Wt.: 175 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Bloomington, Minn. Acquired: By trade with Cleveland along with Pitcher Don McMahon for Pitcher Dick Radatz, June 2, 1966.

With six wins and three saves last year, Lee didn't match his 1968 record when he was the top Red Sox reliever, but he did work more innings as a long relief man and occasional starter. His work in community relations in Boston earned him the "Man of the Year" award from the BoSox club, made up of baseball boosters in the area. For a period during 1969, he was also the Red Sox bullpen coach. A fine clutch performer since coming to the Red Sox in 1966, he again will have to battle younger challengers to retain his long relief status.

He was All-State in baseball and All-Chicago in basketball at Proviso Township High, and also played football, with Ray Nitschke of the Packers as a teammate. He signed with the then Washington Senators, later the Twins, after one year at Drake. Married and has three children.

THOMAS, George Edward, Jr. (George)

OUTFIELDER

Born: Nov. 29, 1937, Minneapolis, Minn. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Birmingham, Mich. Acquired from Detroit Tigers with George Smith for Bill Monbouquette, Oct. 4, 1965.

After spending most of the 1968 season in Louisville under Eddie Kasko, George was having a fine season with the Red Sox last year until he severely injured his right knee in a first base collision with Ken Harrelson on June 24. Although he was reactivated in September, he appeared in only one more game. He is a special invitee to camp.

George was a valuable utility man for Boston in 1966 and on the 1967 pennant winner, when he was the club's "holler" guy. Originally signed with Detroit after his sophomore year at the University of Minnesota, where he also played basketball. He was a three-sport star at Bloomington (Minn.) High. He has continued his education at Wayne State University in Detroit during the off-season. Married and has two daughters.

WAGNER, Gary Edward (Gary)

PITCHER

Born: June 28, 1941, Bridgeport, Ill. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Bridgeport, Ill. Acquired: From Eugene of the Pacific Coast League (Phillies organization) for Mike Jackson, September 7, 1969.

Primarily a starter in the minor leagues, he has pitched mostly relief in the majors. He had good years as a reliever with the Phillies in 1965 and 1968, and started last season with the Phils but had arm trouble. He recovered his effectiveness with Eugene in the Pacific Coast League and had that league's lowest ERA of pitchers with at least 100 innings. He also topped the PCL in shutouts with five.

Gary is an off-season teacher in his native Bridgeport, Ill. He signed with the Phils after graduation from Eastern Illinois University, where he switched from shortstop to pitcher in his senior year. He also played basketball and soccer in college.

He survived a serious childhood accident to become an outstanding athlete. When he was 12 years old, he was kicked in the face by a startled horse and was unconscious for over a month. He wears a V-shaped scar on the right side of his chin as a souvenir of that encounter. Married, and has two sons.

YASTRZEMSKI, Carl Michael (Carl)

OUTFIELDER

Born: Aug. 22, 1939, Southampton, L. I., N. Y. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 183 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Boston, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Bots Nekola, Nov. 28, 1958.

Although his batting average dropped to the lowest figure of his career, Yaz' 1969 homer and RBI production compared favorably with his sensational season of 1967, when he won the Triple Crown and every award in sight. Also in 1969, he won the seventh Gold Glove of his career and led the league in assists for a record fifth time.

An indication of rival pitchers' respect for his power was that only Frank Howard, Sal Bando, Reggie Jackson and Harmon Killebrew were walked more times than he was last season.

He starred as an infielder in high school and signed after his freshman year at Notre Dame. He received his degree from Merrimack College in the spring of 1967, and now is a successful associate of a Boston investment firm and director of a new bank. Married and has three children.

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE — A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (June 10) and Winter (last Saturday of January) . . .

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase — selection of free agents in inverse order of major league standings . . . Limitations on number of selections by each organization at each level: Major League (1), "AAA" (1), "AA" (1), "A" (unlimited) . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase — selection of free agents who had been drafted at a previous meeting, but who were not subsequently signed before the negotiation right expired . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with express written consent of that player . . . Order of selection in the secondary phase is determined by lot.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a pre-arranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) . . .

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8 . . .

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall now be considered a suspended game and will be resumed at the point of suspension.

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Major League Waivers	June 15	Last Day of Season
League Waivers (assignor's league)	Last Day of Season	5 Days After End of World Series

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances, 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: To qualify as a Rookie a player may not have spent more than 45 days on a big league roster between cutdown dates (the first day of season and Aug. 31), AND may not have exceeded 90 official at bats or 45 innings pitched at major league level.

SAVE RULE — Credit a save to a relief pitcher who enters the game with his team in the lead if he holds the lead the remainder of the game, provided he is not credited with the victory. A relief pitcher cannot be credited with a save if he does not finish the game, unless he is removed for a pinch hitter or runner. When more than one relief pitcher qualifies for a save under the provisions of this rule, credit the save to the relief pitcher judged by the scorer to have been the most effective. Only one save can be credited in any game.

PLAYER LIMITS — 25 players from opening day through August 31 . . . 40 players from September 1 through end of season . . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME — Any game scheduled to start after 6 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Two-night double-headers shall be included in doubleheader statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games (separate admissions) are played on the same date, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE — All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. city time, it can be completed.
